For the holy schnitzel food that we got, it wasn't enough but it was both GF and kosher, and very few people who needed kosher food got it. I think in the future we should consider cheaper options so we can also

Gabriella & Aaron

It is hard to figure out which of the foods during Snack Attacks are for each of the dietary restrictions, we need to figure it out better in the future.

Maria

There is a petition going around to expand the gym, and some people were wondering if we would like to take part in it. Nora: the space on campus is an ongoing issue, these are conversations that have been happening since October, and having a larger gym and other public places is a part of this conversation and will continue to be part of it.

VI. PUBLIC COMMENT

This segment of the meeting is reserved for non-Council members to address the General Studies Student Council on any matter of concern. A time limit of three (3) minutes per speaker shall be observed. The Council will not take any action during this time. Council members will not respond to public comment at this time, however an executive board member may reach out to commenters after this meeting for follow up.

Kristine

Been engaging with the students with family initiatives. The conversation was about whether the student government is viable for students with families. For many students, meeting in person weekly is a large part of the problem. During covid, students used zoom, and weren't expected to come to council in person. There is some interest within the students with families. My goal is to encourage a conversation, with the main purpose of it as figuring out how to strengthen participation access for students with families, specifically with GS having the mission of supporting students with non-traditional paths.

VII. EXECUTIVE SESSION

This closed session is reserved for any General Studies Student Council Members to discuss and possibly take action on voting in the nominees for various, posted, council vacancies. The public, and the nominees will be asked to step out of the room while the council conducts this business.
